August 16 1838 MR EDITOR The Whigs of Old Kennebec I met in Consenten yesterdig fir the purpose of GREAT ASSEMBLAGE OF THE making their County nominations, they met as usual at the Old Court house, but hade gut too small edj urned to the State house. I hive nev the annals of the Whig party A County Con | er seen half so linge a County Convention in Kennebec before, every town was represented, not by Office ho'ders, not by the ruffle shirt Gent vention to nominate a candidate for Congress ry, but by the yeomanny, the Farmers and the At the call for these Conventions regular dele | Michanits, the hard hands and stout hearts of gates were chosen to the number of about the County, and they looked determined to de FOUR HUNDRED, but the people now alive or die Our old board of Senitors and Coun to the success of the party, turned out from all, ty Tressurer were ugain nominated, with the parts of the County to the number of nearly most perfect unanimity and they will be elected by a most overwhelming majority. You may The Convention was held at East Corinth, rest assured that Kennebec will give a much and there benigno building in the place larger larger mijirity than she ever gave. After the enough to accommodate the people, though nominations were made and the Committee upthere was a large meeting house in the place on resolutions had reported, the Convention and kindly offered to the people by the Bapti t wie addressed by our Representative in Con-Society there, they adjourned to a Grove near | gross the Hon Geo Erans | He gave us one of the village, and made their numinitions. This the finest speeches I ever listened to. It was was probably the largest Convention ever held full of argument, brilliancy with and sarcasm, in Maine, those who have attended the Con the commented upon the Address of the Locofoventions in this State, all agree that it was the cos to the people of the United States, and largest. All were order and harmony to the showed it up in all its naked deformities. I really wish that every man in the whole State could have heard this speech. The above sentence is taken from the Address to the "Democrats of the Linted Stites, sign ed by Reuel Williams, Garrett D Wall and others Such an expression as this is just what might be expected from such men. Will the people submit to that? No, thank heaven. The bullot boxes are telling a tale that will make the tyrants tremble.
